		ils you give us, or which are	supplied by thir	d parties to consider v	our claim, to search t	he files of credit	reference
We may use personal and business details you give us, or which are supplied by third parties, to consider your claim, to search the files of credit reference agencies who may keep a record of the search, to carry out such financial and other enquiries as we consider necessary to evaluate the claim and assist in making a decision regarding the claim, and for compliance business reviews. We may also share these details with other insurance organisations and selected						ns and selected other parties to handle claims and prevent fraud. Personal details may be transferred to countries outside of the EU. They will at all times be held securely and handled with the utmost care in accordance with all principles of UK law. We will store such personal details on computer but will not keep them for longer than necessary. Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 1998, individuals are entitled to a copy of all of the information we hold about them.
VERY IMPORTANT - FRAUDULENT AND EXAGGERATED CLAIMS Deliberately exaggerated claims could invalidate your policy cover. Insurance fraud is a crime and liable to prosecution.
The above answers to our questions will be the basis of consideration of your claim. You must ensure that all information is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief, and that all material facts have been disclosed.
A material fact is one that is likely to influence us in the assessment or acceptance of this claim, or one that is likely to influence our consideration of cover

If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, you must disclose it. FAILURE TO DO THIS MAY MEAN THAT YOUR POLICY BECOMES INVALID AND A CLAIM PAYMENT WILL NOT BE MADE.
